Kathleen read the Treasurer's Report

Old Business

-Josh spoke about CLOTA's response to COVID-19 on the website and social media.

-The current show, The Diary of Anne Frank, has been cancelled, and will be rescheduled when we are able to open the theatre back up.

-Lighter Shade of Noir is still on the slate, but up in the air if it will be this year or next.

-Josh entertained a motion that we should cancel the fireworks booth for this year and revisit the fundraiser next year. Kathleen moved the motion, Kevin seconded the motion, the vote was unanimous.

New Business

-The radio play Kevin put together is finished and posted on the website and social media.

-There is also a new page on the website for donations.

-Larry has repainted the floor in the lobby.

-A discussion was had about cancelling the phone service for CLOTA and moving to Google Voice. Josh and Kathleen will research the logistics and present at the next meeting.

-There were no committee reports.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:13 pm

Respectfully submitted

-Josh Cotterell
